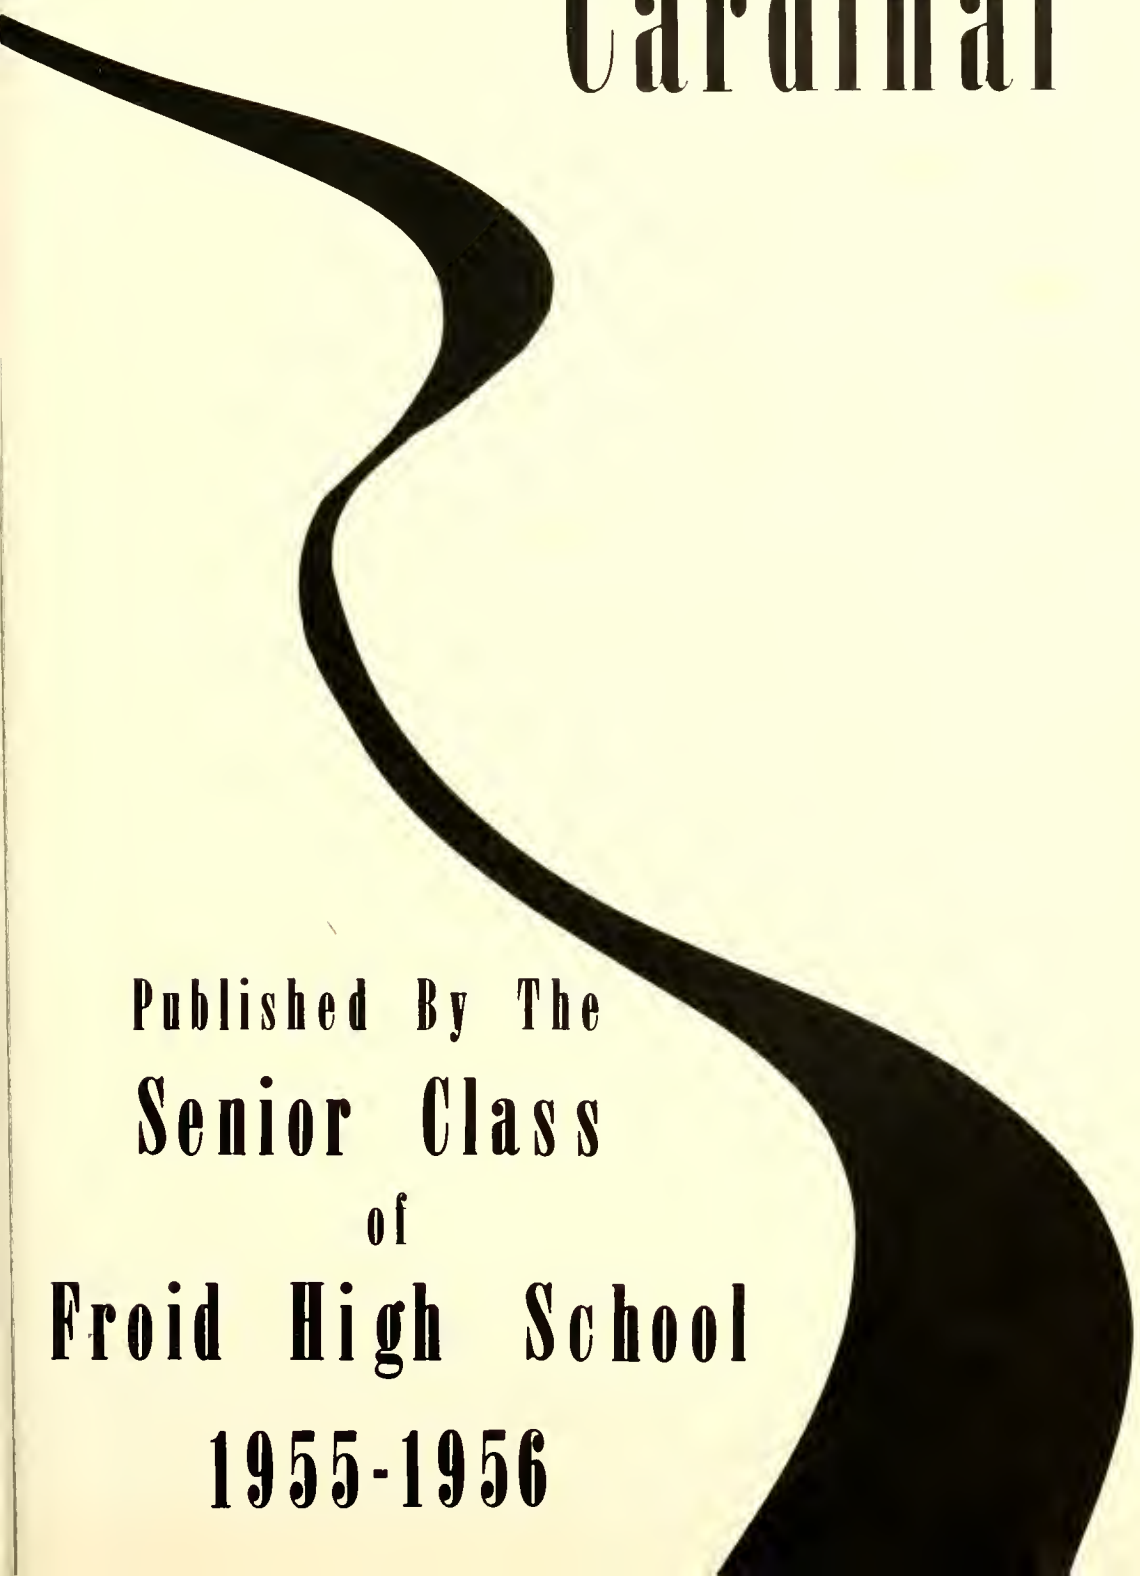
The Cardinal



Published By The

Senior Class

of

Froid High School

1955-1956

Foreword

Another year of "sweat" is over at F. H. S. Some of us are saying goodbye, some are just saying hello. Another year is completed and now we are all looking forward to another year with fun and friends, whether it is here at F. H. S. or off to the far unknown, but left are the memories of 1955-'56. We can't portray the past year for every individual at F. H. S., but in this yearbook we have tried to record the action, sentiment, smiles, tears, work and play of a year all rolled up into one. They are your memories and we hope you enjoy each page of the "Cardinal."

Dedication

As a means of thanking Miss Osta Madsen for years of hard work and unselfish devotion we wish to dedicate the "Cardinal" of 1956 to her.

We are extremely grateful for her encouragement and enthusiasm at the times when our zeal was gone. She helped to make our work enjoyable, and we trust that this volume will be a reminder of her years at F. H. S.

Class History

We, the senior class of "56," started our tour through France in 1944. We entered the first grade in LeHavre with nineteen passengers. They were Margaret Christoffersen, Jean Grovom, Ethel Johnson, Mary Rose Stuller, Barbara Reynen, Barbara Erickson, Barbara Reiter, June Young, Darlene Hanson, Mildred Jensen, Ruth Mogen, Ardis Tobiason, Roger Bertelsen, Ervin Bakken, Clenard LaMar, Burton Baker, Arthur Hoye, and Carl Svendson. Alta Oien was our guide.

Our second stop was at Roven. We left Barbara Erickson, Ruth Mogen and Carl Svendson behind and picked up four new passengers. They were Carreen McNeil, Sylvia Tipp, Richard Krogedal, and Delmar Johnson. Our count again was nineteen, with Leona Miller as our leader.

As we journeyed on through France, our third stop was Bernay. We left Burton Baker, Arthur Hoye, Richard Krogedal, and Mildred Jensen at Roven and gained three new passengers, Audrey Hestkind, Eunice Kelley, and Alton Nelson. The number enrolled was seventeen, with Ruth Sunwall as our guide.

As we continued through France, our fourth stop was at Nice. We were sorry to leave Darlene Hanson, Sylvia Tipp, and Ardis Tobiason. Our new passengers were Richard Krogedal, Marion Nyquist, Marion Sterham, Patricia Rogers, and Dennis Pederson. We then had seventeen passengers, they were Margaret Christoffersen, Jean Grovom, Ethel Johnson, Barbara Reynen, Mary Rose Stuller, Carreen McNeil, June Young, Marion Nyquist, Barbara Reiter, Marion Sterham, Pat Rogers, Roger Bertelsen, Ervin Bakken, Clenard LaMar, Richard Krogedal, Alton Nelson, and Dennis Pederson. Our leader was Bonna Olson, but because of illness Gertrude Wheeler finished the year.

Our fifth stop was at Gray, we were very fortunate not to have lost any of our passengers at Nice. At this point we gained three new passengers, Shirley Pattison, Don Perrine, and Manny Rued. Robert Rueter was our guide.

As we started on again our sixth stop was at Clermont. We were sorry to leave Marion Sterham and Pat Rogers behind. Our new passengers were Janis Emswiler, Coreen Borsheim and Pat Christensen. Our count now was twenty, with Carmon Enockson as our leader. Margaret Christoffersen was chosen to star in the Junior class play, "Seventeenth Summer."

Perigueux was our stop. We lost Mary Rose Stuller, Pat Christensen, and Barbara Reiter. Our enrollment was now sixteen with Oscar Boeshanes as our guide.

We moved on again making our eighth stop at Boreaux where we lost Alton Nelson, Marion Nyquist and Dennis Pederson, our passengers now were Margaret Christoffersen, Ethel Johnson, Barbara Reynen, Janis Emswiler, Jean Grovom, June Young, Carreen McNeil, Shirley Pattison, Richard Krogedal, Don Perrine, Manny Rued, Ervin Bakken, Roger Bertelson, and Clenard LaMar. That made fourteen to graduate from Junior High. Robert Stock was our leader.

As we entered our freshman year we stopped at Argenton. All fourteen came back for higher education. Our new passenger was Dwight Buckendahl. Shirley Pattison, was our class president, Richard Krogedal, vice president; and Dwight Buckendahl as secretary-treasurer. Ethel Johnson and Carreen McNeil were elected as carnival queen candidates, Ethel competed in the finals. Margaret Christoffersen and Jean Grovom were student council representatives. Shirley dropped out to begin a new career as Mrs. Leo Carrier.

Higher we went, getting a little more "sophisticated" each year. We chose London as our next stop. Colleen Trinder and Donald Sundheim started with us. Colleen moved to Helena to finish her schooling, and Donald dropped out in the second semester. Jean Grovom and Janis Emswiler were in the senior class play, "Tower Room Mystery." Janis Emswiler and Margaret Christoffersen were chosen carnival queen candidates, and both were in the final race. Our student council representatives were Janis Emswiler and Roger Bertelsen. Our class president was Jean Grovom, our vice president, Richard Krogedal; and secretary-treasurer Margaret Christoffersen.

Versailles was where we stopped for our junior year, with fourteen passengers. Dwight Buckendahl transferred to another school. In the second semester Don Perrine joined the Navy. We put out the "Froid Flash," this year in which we received a superior rating from M.I.E.A. We presented "Feudin O'er Yonder" on November 19, for our class play. "Evening in Paris" was our Junior-Senior prom theme. Carreen McNeil and Jean Grovom were elected as carnival queen candidates with Jean in the finals. Margaret Christoffersen and Manny Rued were student council representatives. We elected Roger Bertelson as class president, vice president, Janis Emswiler; Ethel Johnson, secretary; and June Young as treasurer, with Jean Grovom as social chairman.

Our final stop was at Paris, which made our dreams complete. Barbara Reynen transferred to Great Falls. Maurice Hughes transferred to Froid from Garden City, South Dakota. Richard Krogedal dropped out. June Young and Ethel Johnson were elected carnival queen candidates. We were very proud as Ethel was crowned carnival queen . We elected Manny Rued as class president, Carreen McNeil as vice president, Ethel Johnson as secretary and Roger Bertelsen as treasurer. Margaret Christoffersen was elected student council president, Roger Bertelsen, vice president; and Jean Grovom as social chairman. June Young and Ervin Bakken were our student council representatives. The Senior class presented "The Four Sisters," March 16, 1956. A record attendance was reported, with the proceeds of $183.90.

During our visit in Paris we took a little excursion to the United States to visit Great Falls, Montana. We left Thrusday morning, March 22, after eating a delicious breakfast at the Ewald Christoffersen home. We returned to Paris on March 25.

The class round trip ticket ran out on May 22, 1956, when the final farewell ceremony was held. Orvin B. Fjare was on hand as main speaker for this festivity.

Class Will

We the seniors of 1956, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will our extraordinary talents and experiences to the below mentioned individuals according to the terms of this will and testament.

To the junior class we will our honored spot as seniors; make the best of your final year. We also will you the good judgement and luck that made us what we are today. To you go all our privileges and rights as seniors, and the ability to get along and have fun together your last year.

To the sophomores we leave our wisdom and ability to concentrate at all times. We also will you our ability to stay cool, calm, and collected (in spite of the juniors.)

To the freshmen we will our sophistication and the ability to get through four years of high school--learn something--and have a lot of fun doing it.

To the freshman-to-be we will a map of the high school so you won't get lost next year.

I, CLENARD LaMAR, leave my appetite to Patricia Rudolph. Watch the waistline though Patricia. I will my wrestling ability to Penny Sue Knick. I would also like to sorrowfully leave my knack of arguing to Helen Johnson.

I, ETHEL JOHNSON, will my knowledge that "Silence Is Golden" to Flora Ostwald. I don't think you'll ever be a millionaire though Flora. I leave full time use of daddy's Merc. to my sister, Phyllis. I would also like to will to Fay Christoffersen, my ability to tell the boys of the class what to do and get by with it.

I, ROGER BERTELSEN, will my ability to give the wrong answers in P.D.P. and stand by it to Ardis Tobiason. I will my ability to keep the girls guessing to my good friend Gerald Schlagel. My funny habit of studying goes to Arden Nelson, hope it gets you as far as it did me.

I, JUNE YOUNG, eagerly and hopefully will to Sharon Slevin my neat locker. I will my perfect attendance record to Charlotte Schlagel. My serious ways I will to Peggy Cookson and Marjorie Christianson. My faithful typewriter I will to Jim Ross. Make good use of it next year.

I, MAURICE HUGHES, will my out-of-town addresses to my brother, Merlin. Now you can have sole use of the Chevy too. I also will my ability to "WOW" the crowds at class plays to Jim Svendsen. I would like to leave my love of western music to Jack Slevin.

I, JANIS EMSWILER, leave my noteworthy intelligence to the school for future use, if necessary. I sorrowfully leave my giggle to James Ostby. Take care of it Jimmy, I might want it back. Also to Norma Becker I leave my gum cracking ability. Oh! by the way, you can have my piccolo Verona.

I, MANNY RUED, will my ability to get along with the female population of this institution to Dick Cookson. My executive ability, as class president, I will to the future senior president. I leave my record collection to Mary Ann, and also my flying Ford, but you've got to furnish the gas yourself. I also bequeath my wise cracks to Gary Waller and my good looks to Robert Smith.

I, CARREEN McNEIL, leave my good nature and ready smile to anyone fortunate enough to get them. They seemed to get me what I wanted. I will my quietness and good behavior to Dickie Moothart, and my sense of humor to Everett Horton.

I, ERVIN BAKKEN do bequeath my suave, masculine charm to Parry Luebke. To Archie Johnson I leave my cherished book entitled "How to Get Along With Teacher," I think it has some very good ideas. I leave my singing ability to Ray Thiessen, by the way Ray, the girls really go for it.

I, JEAN GROVOM, will my ability to talk incessantly to Miriam Moore, together we could go on all day. To Verna LaMar I leave my motto that "Diamonds are a girl's best friend" and I hope you're as lucky as I am. I also will my cheerleading ability to Eddie and Billy Reiter. You'd be great.

I, MARGARET CHRISTOFFERSEN, will my red hair to LeRoy Scott. I leave my ability to be jolly and friendly every day to Dee Ann Ryder. I also bequeath all the slightly used gum under seat number 5 by the window in the English room to Barbara Reiter.

WE, MANNY, ROGER, CLENARD, ERVIN, and MAURICE do bequeath our ability to play basketball to Coach Megrund's prodigies in the form of the 1956 and '57 junior class.

WE, CARREEN McNEIL, and JEAN GROVOM, do hereby will our matrimonial success to Ardyce McNeil and Linda Krogedal.

Passing parade

by MAY MANN

Rumors confirmed....gossip d e n i e d...success stories....May's diary tells all in this exciting, exclusive column that tells you how eleven of our most prominent and successful Americans gained their success in ten years.

Hello readers....This is May Mann again with another gossip column, telling you the inside news on America's most prominent celebrities and business men. Since this is May 22, 1966..which is ten years after I graduated from Froid High School..I have looked into the lives of my old classmates and found them interesting so I decided to put something about them in my column.

DON'T COUNT ON---

The big surprise when I wrote this was the sudden engagement of Manny Rued, top band leader and drummer, to a "sweet little hometown girl from Montana." Whether this will lead to the alter or not, I can't say; maybe yes, maybe no. Manny is right on top with his new style orchestra--it seems everyone from nine to ninety loves his type of music. He's riding high and we wish him, and his bride to be, luck.

NEWS SPLINTERS---

I saw June Young the other night, looking stunning in an elaborate evening gown. She is a writer of plays and has two successful ones running on Broadway now. She has also written many novels which are indeed best sellers. June didn't have overnight success but now she has reached the top and is there to stay. Her family holds first place in her life though. She has two darling little boys and a girl, and her husband is making the army his life's career.

SHE'S THE DOC---

I had a personal interview with Dr. Ethel Johnson yesterday and she seems to be one of the most intelligent women I've ever known. Dr. Johnson is known the world over and as you all know, won the Nobel Peace Prize last year. She travels from the darkest jungles to the largest metropolitan areas doctoring those in need. Dr. Johnson certainly doesn't look like a hard working woman because she is so charming. By the way she is getting married June 22.

MONTANA MRS.---

Mrs. America this year is from Montana. It's not very often that the southern belles get defeated, but Mrs. Jean Purvis is someone for Montana to be proud of. This sweet little mother has brains, beauty and has raised a family of four as if it were simple. She also cooks and sews all the family's clothes. After Mrs. America and her husband return from a trip to Bermuda, she will star in a movie. Jean has been offered a contract from M. G. M. but she says she prefers being a housewife. All I can say is, "What a lucky husband."

STRIKE IT RICH---

Clenard LaMar, the multi-millionaire, has bought a new yacht and is planning to sail around the world in two weeks. He made his money on oil. He owned a series of filling stations for both cars and aircraft and made enough money in seven years to retire. He was a farmer's son but he was ambitious and secretly fond of the sea. He is married and he and the family live in England during the summer but come back to the U. S. in the fall and winter months so the children can attend school here.

SUCCESS NEWS---

Now we're in Montana again, and the city is Sprole. My what a change in this town! There is a large factory, the sign says "Tillie's Best Toilet Soaps." Ervin owns much of this city, he was the mayor for four years but then he lost by one vote, cast by his campaign manager. His motto is "All for one and that one me." Ervin is happily married to a multi-millionaire's daughter but they have no children.

NEWS THIMBLE---

Janis Emswiler, remember her and her flute? Janis went to college at Kansas for four years and started teaching in Columbus, North Dakota. One night she took her flute out just to see if she could still trill and a talent scout heard her; now she is playing solo flute in the symphony orchestra at the Metropolitan Opera. She has never married; although she has suitors innumerable, she is waiting for someone who will share her love for western music.

ITEM ROUND UP---

Just a couple of weeks ago I was on a tour through the mountains in northern Canada. I saw a figure riding toward me. He was wearing a stunning uniform. He looked very handsome and seemed to know it. He stopped and read a sign offering many thousands of dollars reward for the capture of a murderer at large in the Canadian forest. He smiled and said, "The mounties always get their man." As he rode nearer I recognized him as Maurice Hughes. He was recently engaged to a Canadian starlet but it only lasted long enough enough to get their pictures in and out of the newspapers, so now he's just "playing it real cool."

ABOUT MISS McNEIL---

It's hard to believe, but Carreen McNeil is talking about permanent retirement from the acting game. In spite of her new contract at 20th Century Fox and a substantial pay raise, she's ready to answer yes to two all-important questions: "Marry me," and "Give up acting." Surprising as it may seem, Carreen once thought of being a secretary, but "be on guard Hollywood, a 'Montana Boy' is stealing your talented actress."

CONGRATULATIONS PROF. ---

Went over to a lovely college town last week end and attended the inauguration of Roger Bertelsen as the new president of the college. Roger studied civil engineering at the college and taught there after his graduation, and soon was boosted up as professor. Such success, and it doesn't go to his head either. I had such an enjoyable time visiting with him and his wife and three darling children. His wife, by the way, is a graduate of Froid too, ('57) and strange as it may seem, their daughter's name is Sharon. Wouldn't you expect him to be a college president, or something like that--and a very good one, too?

Class Song

GRADUATION'S HERE

(Tune: Juke-Box Baby)

Graduation's here, we're leaving now;
We are tired of lessons, study's grown a bore;
We've sighed to rest us far from the sight of schools,
But F.H.S. we will miss you more and more.

Seniors, Seniors, no more in Froid High School we will shine.
Seniors, Seniors, but soon we'll be alumni fine.
Seniors, Seniors, though we are so sick of tests,
We will think of you as the school we love best.

How'd we ever get our home work done
When we kept that juke-box on the run?
We didn't dig English like we did that crazy sound.
F.H.S. you're the swingin'est school around.

We were freshmen,
Green and timid;
Then we were sophomores,
Right was all that we did.
When juniors we worked so sincerely
And did the best to our ability.

We put out the Flash workin' nights and days,
And we had so much fun with our two class plays.
We spent our prom in a gay Parisian town.
Seniors, Seniors, you're the swingin'est class in town.

See you later, Alligator,
Hey wing a ding a!
What a class to have around.
Seniors, Seniors--Seniors, Seniors,
You're the wingin'est, dingin'est, swingin'est guys around.

Class

Ervin Bakken, our dark, handsome lad,
Needs lots of attention or else he'll be mad.
The neat way he dresses really shows class,
And his singing would draw most any young lass.
He has many nick-names like "Ole" and "Tillie,"
And on the dance floor he is really a dilly.

Roger Bertelsen, the wavy haired blonde;
Of our salutatorian we really are fond.
With his quips and jokes and arguing he's tops;
His musical abilities are the cream of the crop.
He was chosen for Boys' State as one of our best.
As a chemical engineer he'll beat all the rest.

Our red head comes next, Margaret Christoffersen by name.
Her trumpeting and singing has won quite a claim.
She's happy-go-lucky and full of vitality
But we aren't sure of the outcome of her mantality.
She's half Norwegian and half Dane,
If you call her anything else she'd really raise cane.

Janis Emswiler, our own Girls' Stater,
Hoped to be valedictorian and finally made 'er.
She cheers for the "B" squad at every game,
And it seems all her boyfriends have the same last name.
She's the chief alto singer in our school chorus
And she gives out with a giggle without any fuss.

Small, dark and cute, Jean Grovom comes next.
She would rather be with Bob than study a text.
She's cheered for the "A" squad her four high school years
And when elected band president she couldn't believe her ears.
She can talk a blue streak about any ol' thing--
About graduation and Bobby and even a ring.

"Daddio" is our nick-name for Maurice Hughes.
He'd rather crack jokes than mind his "p's" and "q's."
If anyone's sad he'll make you happy,
He always comes up with something snappy.
In South Dakota he was a jockey we hear,
But now when you want a ride his Chevy is near.

Poem

Ethel Johnson, our carnival queen,
Either playing piano or accordian is seen.
Her long blonde hair is her joy and pride;
And as F.H.A. president she did preside.
There is always a smile whenever you meet
And her sweet personality is hard to beat.

Next we come to Clenard LaMar
Who certainly was our football star.
He's willing to do just any old task
If you will just take the time to ask.
He's proved his abilities in our class plays
And has been a real friend throughout our school days.

Of our next girl we are very fond.
She's Carreen McNeil our fair, sweet blonde.
A Bainville guy just "Crusch"ed her heart;
They are never seen very far apart.
She's the first Clarinet tooter for the F.H.S. band;
If you can't play a note she surely can.

"Any further business?" That's Manny Rued.
With his president's gavel he stops every feud.
If you see a two toned streak followed by "Harry,"
You'll know it's Manny with all the kids his car can carry.
His Princeton hair cut, man it's neat!
All in all, he's quite all reet.

June Young, she's quite a lass,
The oldest student of the '56 class.
She spends a lot of money on air mail stamps
Used on her letters to that guy in Army camps.
She toots a clarinet in our senior band
And some day she hopes to be a secretary that's really in demand.

The Froid Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America held its first meeting of the year on September 7, 1955. President Norma Becker called the meeting to order. Other officers were Dee Ann Ryder, vice president; Sharon Tasa, secretary; Verona Boger, treasurer; Penny Sue Knick, reporter; Helen Johnson, parliamentarian; Flora Ostwald, historian; and Fay Christoffersen, song leader. Mrs. Eddie Johnson and Mrs. Ewald Christoffersen were the chapter mothers. The group had 43 members with Jean Nicholson as advisor.

The first and third Wednesday of each month were set aside as meeting dates. The District 8 convention was held in Culbertson on October 8. Margaret Christoffersen was district secretary. Delegates to the state convention were Norma Becker, Ardyce McNeil, Sharon Tasa, Barbara Reiter, and Phyllis Johnson. The convention was held in Miles City on March 25, 26, and 27. The girls were accompanied by their advisor, Mrs. Jean Nicholson.

The following were activities of the F.H.A.: A Father-Daughter Banquet on March 14, a bake sale and chile supper on March 24, and a Christmas Ball on December 26. They also adopted a war orphan.

P. T. A.

The Froid local Parent Teachers Association meets the first Monday of each month to do their business. The first part of the year the P. T. A. is kept busy with activities that include summer roundup and arranges the pre-school clinic.

Two officers were elected this year, namely Mrs. Douglas Sorenson as secretary and Mr. William Luft as vice president, to serve our local P. T. A. for a term of two years. It is the policy of our local P. T. A. to follow the rules handed down from the national P. T. A. and carry over two officers each year. This year the president, Mrs. Marion Ostby, and treasurer, Mrs. Alma Slevin, were held over to serve one more year in the official capacity as officers for the organization.

SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM

The School Lunch Program is supported by a charge of twenty cents per child per meal if a child has regular meals in the program and by a federal reimbursement at five cents a meal. This federal money is collected by the county treasurer and credited to our account in Wolf Point. In the fall of each year patrons have been asked to donate the project food that they feel can be used to good advantage in meals that are cooked.

Two cooks serve and prepare the food for the school children. Mrs. Sven Bertelsen and Mrs. Agnes Kveseth have been with us as cooks for four years. They serve an average of one hundred and forty-five meals a day during the nine months to the children of our community.

This year the P. T. A. furnished new plastic compartment dishes and silverware for the school lunch program. We know our lunch program is a good one and we are very proud of it.

CARNIVAL

For two days the students worked very hard to get the gym gaily decorated for the big carnival night, November 5, 1956. At 7:00 p.m. the crowd started to arrive. About 8:00 p.m. the high school presented a musical program that took place in the "Toy Shop" with all of the beautiful dolls coming to life as soon as the store keeper, Jim Ross, closed for the day. The dolls were girls and boys from the high school.

At midnight the queen was crowned. Ethel Johnson, a senior, is the Froid High School's carnival queen of 1955 and '56. The queen was crowned by the vice president of the student council, Roger Bertelsen. The runners up were Sharon Tasa, junior; Beverly Erickson, freshman; and Verona Boger, junior. The queen's prize of $25.00 was won by Gerald Salvhuse, Homestead.

The first door prize, a polaroid camera, was won by Mrs. Bonna Olsen of Froid; second prize, a set of car luggage, was won by Shirley Hermanson of Plentywood; and the third prize, an electric frying pan, was won by Mrs. August Eschenbacher, Jr. of Froid. Si Huntington, of Froid, won the food basket and Kenneth Engelke won the money guess.

Quickly the students took down the concession stands, and swept the floor. The rest of the evening was spent dancing to the music of Bill McFarlin and his orchestra from Williston, North Dakota. The gross receipts were $2,587.00.

BASKETBALL BANQUET

The Froid Basketball team along with their coach, Mr. Megrund, and manager Gerald Schlagel, the pep club advisor, Miss Donahue and the "A" and "B" cheerleaders were honored Tuesday night, March 6, at a banquet in the hot lunch room. The affair was sponsored by the senior class who did all of the preparing and serving themselves under the able guidance of their advisor, Mr. Fahn, and the Home Ec. teacher, Mrs. Nicholson. About 140 local fans were served a delicious meal of roast pork with all the trimmings which was topped off with some entertainment.

Supt. G. N. Anderson acted as Master of Ceremonies. Sharon Slevin and Beverly Erickson sang two duets, Mr. Megrund gave a speech concerning sportsmanship and handed out letters to the boys who earned them this past year, and the entire group joined the cheerleaders in singing the school song.

FESTIVALS

The annual Band Festival was held in Medicine Lake, Wednesday, April 18. There were six bands there, the Froid Band under the direction of Supt. G. N. Anderson, Brockton, Culbertson, Medicine Lake, Plentywood, and Westby. Lief Christianson from Concordia College judged all the bands, solos, and ensembles. He also directed the mass band, made up of all six bands, which gave an evening concert. Janis Emswiler was one of the band members who was picked to play her solo, Ballroom Echoes, at this concert.

The Froid High School Girls' Chorus and their director, Mrs. Margaret McIvor, participated in the annual chorus festival at Plentywood on April 20. The chorus sang "Bless This House" and "You'll Never Walk Alone." The triple trio also sang two numbers, "Kentucky Babe" and "Prayer Perfect." The triple trio-Norma Becker, Fay Christoffersen, Beverly Erickson, Janis Emswiler, Dianne Hanson, Ardyce McNeil, Diane Sundheim and June Young-received a superior rating on their songs. Mr. Strohm from Minot State Teachers' College was the adjudicater for this event.

The Froid Band was one of the 38 bands to participate in the 26th Annual Upper Missouri Band Festival in Williston, North Dakota, Saturday, May 12. There were 42 units in all in the parade which started at 10:30 a.m. The seperate bands gave concerts in Recreation Park in the afternoon. Jean Grovom, the president of the band, presented Marlyn Webb, our hostess, with a gift during our concert. The Hardin-Simons Cowboy Band from Abilene, Texas was the guest band this year. An evening performance was given by them along with a few numbers by the high school mass band.

JUNIOR - SENIOR PROM

The junior class honored the seniors at a banquet and prom on Saturday evening, May 5. The banquet was held in the hot lunch room with the seniors, juniors, faculty and school board members, the janitor and Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Dixon attending. The meal of roast beef was prepared by the junior class mothers, and served by six sophomore boys and girls dressed in sailor outfits.

At 10:00 the dancing began in the gym in a setting of ocean waves and billowy white clouds to fit in with the theme, "Anchors Aweigh."

At 11:00 the prom queen and king, who were elected by the student body, were crowned by Miss Verna LaMar. Prom Queen Margaret Christoffersen and her escort, Jack Slevin, led the Grand March followed by Prom King Donald Knudsen and his date, Dee Ryder. The senior class president, Manny Rued, and his date, Janis Emswiler, followed. Bill McFarlin's orchestra provided music for the occasion.

A floor show, which took the audience on an imaginary voyage, was presented at 12:00. It was conducted by three sailors, Dick Lien, Ronald Erickson and Bing Krohmer, who opened the program with the singing of "Anchors Aweigh." Other numbers on the program included a piano solo, "Poor People of Paris," by Sharon Jacobsen; a vocal duet, "Amopola," by Sharon Slevin and Beverly Erickson; a solo, "April in Portugal," by Sharon Slevin and a group of gay Mexican dancers. The dancers were Janis Bertelsen, Janet Ostby, Bobby Erickson, Stanley Krohmer, Jerry Jensen, Gloria Priebe, Eddy Lien, and Karen Theissen.

Dancing resumed after intermission and continued until 2:00 A. M.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

A large crowd attended the junior class play "Grandma's Best Years," a three act comedy by Earl L. Russell, on November 22, 1956 in the school gym. Net proceeds of the play were $135.00.

The play takes place when Grandma Sims (Lois Reiter) comes from the farm to visit her daughter and finds a situation which is not to her liking. It seems that her daughter, Mrs. Abbott (Fay Christoffersen), has become a social climber since the death of her husband, and the three Abbott children and Sadie, the maid, (Flora Ostwald) are having a miserable time.

The very day Gram arrives, Mrs. Abbott is bringing three upper-crust guests home for the week end. They are Mrs. Carlson (Sharon Slevin), an effusive society matron, Edwin Carlson (Daniel Nicholson), her son whom Mrs. Abbott insists her daughter Joyce (Dee Ryder) must marry, although she loves Jim Meyerson (Roger Bertelson), a local telegraph operator..Another of her guests is Miss Quelch (Verna LaMar), an unlikeable spinster, who runs an exclusive girls' school to which Mrs. Abbott intends to send Marion (Sharon Tasa), her fifteen-year-old daughter. Willie (Donald Knudsen), the thirteen-year-old son, is also suffering because his mother won't let him do anything he wants, and insists that he practice on his violin so that she can impress people with her cultured family.

Determined to put a stop to all this Gram invites Cousin Oscar (Gerald Schlagel), the black-sheep of the family, to the week-end party. None of the family had ever seen him and mistook Patch (Dick Moothart), a desperate criminal, for him. Since Patch needed a hide-out he decided to play the part of Cousin Oscar and accepted the invitation and brought his wife Mable (Barbara Reiter) and daughter Bubbles (Myrna Erickson). The party is hardly what either Mrs. Abbott or Gram expected and when the criminal "relatives" find it necessary to get rough many complications arise. Gram settled the whole mess by getting ahold of her trusty shotgun. Mrs. Abbott realized that her children were fine the way they were. Jim and Gram got handsome rewards for capturing the criminals.

Marion's bosom chum Dottie Morgan (Verona Boger) and Willie's side kick Shorty (Dick Cookson) helped with much of the excitement and were just as mixed up as anyone.

The juniors presented Mrs. Margaret McIvor, the director, with a gift and a corsage in appreciation of her many efforts and hard work. The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. McIvor, sang two numbers between acts.

The senior class served a lunch in the hot lunch room after the play. The play cast and their dates went to the home of Fay Christoffersen for lunch.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

A very large crowd attended and enjoyed "The Four Sisters," a romantic comedy in three acts by Robert St. Clair, presented by the senior class on March 16, 1956.

Many favorable comments regarding the performance were heard. It was said that the characters were very well suited for their parts and played them well. The gross receipts totaled $183.94.

One of the highlights of the play was that Della Taggart, next to the youngest sister played by Margaret Christoffersen, and her sister Marie, next older sister played by Jean Grovom, had not spoken to each other for twenty years as the result of a lovers' quarrel. They carried on all their arguments through Rose, the oldest sister, played by Ethel Johnson, who was a calm, thoughtful person.

Jerry Taggart, played by Manny Rued, was the four sisters' nephew whom they took care of when he was left an orphan. When Jerry brought Julia Wyatt, his girlfriend, played by Carreen McNeil, home to meet the sisters, things really began to pop. Marie fainted when the Wyatt name was mentioned, Della got very angry with Julia and accused her of things she couldn't understand at all. Rose finally told them of Della and Marie's quarrel over Julia's uncle many years ago.

The other characters were: Ruth Taggart, the youngest and only married sister, played by Janis Emswiler; Erma, Ruth's married daughter, played by Norma Becker; and Maurice Hughes as Ted MacArthur, Erma's good-natured, loud mouthed husband who is very egotistical, and a show-off with a very perverted sense of humor. Donald Wyatt, Julia's uncle, was played by Roger Bertelsen; Randolph Sayles, Ruth's fiance, was played by Ervin Bakken; June Young played the part of Susan Gray, the Taggart's housekeeper; and Timothy, the Irish gardener, was played by Clenard LaMar.

After the play the cast and their dates went to Carreen McNeil's home for lunch.

The Poplar play cast was invited to the play as guests of the class in return for an invitation to their play.

Entertainment between acts included a vocal solo by Roger Bertelsen and several piano solos by Sharon Jacobsen. The girls' Chorus also sang two numbers. Mrs. McIvor, the director, was presented with a gift and corsage in appreciation of her valuable time and efforts. Mrs. Bennewitt, the make-up director also was presented with a corsage.

Lunch was sold by the junior class in the hot lunch room following the play.

SNEAK DAY

"I'll bet you don't know when we're leaving;" "Let's bet a milk shake on it;" "They're gonna leave Thursday, don't let them fool you." This was some of the talk heard around the halls of FHS while the seniors were planning to sneak off without letting anyone know when and where they were going. But with the wise junior class around the news leaked out and everything, except the time they were leaving, was known by the time they left.

At about 4:00 a.m., March 22, we all met at Margaret Christoffersen's home and ate a big breakfast which consisted of eggs, bacon, rolls, hot chocolate, coffee, oranges, grapefruit, buns, and many other things to start the day off right. At approximately 4:55 we pulled out of Froid and headed for Great Falls. The cars taken were Carreen McNeil's racing ranch wagon, Mr. Fahn's screaming Chevrolet and Roger Bertelsen's flying Chrysler. Our destination was Great Falls, Montana. On the way we stopped at Fort Peck and saw the dam, we stopped in Saco and went swimming at the Hot Springs, and saw some very beautiful scenery. As soon as we arrived at Havre we went straight to the college. Duane Olson took us on a tour through the college and around the campus. Afterward we went down town, ate dinner, had our cars serviced, saw Jimmy Westberg, and then on to Great Falls.

When we arrived in Great Falls the first thing we did was to find the motel where we were staying. All of a sudden we saw a big sign saying "FERGUS MOTEL," so we pulled in and registered. After getting settled and everything, we got cleaned up and went to a show at the Liberty Theater and saw "Rebel Without a Cause." After the show we ate supper at the Park Hotel, went for a drive around town and then back to the motel. The rest of the evening was spent talking and watching T.V. That poor T.V. set didn't get much chance to rest while we were there.

The next day, Friday, March 23, we got up bright and early, went to breakfast, and then started out on part of our tour around the high points of Great Falls. Some of the things we saw were the brewery, water falls, and "Old Town." Some of the dare-devils of the class went right down to the falls and practically stuck their feet in. After dinner we fooled around down town, spending our hard earned money. Friday night Margaret Christoffersen and Jean Grovom went to the show with Mr. and Mrs. Fahn at the Civic Center. They saw "I'll Cry Tomorrow."

Saturday turned out to be another sunny day for us and after breakfast we girls and Mr. and Mrs. Fahn went through the orphanage. We all fell in love with some of the cute children, the boys were only from three to ten years old though. At 2:00 Saturday afternoon we visited the printing press of the Great Falls Tribune. That evening the rest of us went to "I'll Cry Tomorrow." The girls had all gotten their hair cut so they were really in style when they went to supper with the boys and Mr. and Mrs. Fahn. The boys all bought some pretty stylish hats too.

Early Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. Fahn, Ethel Johnson and Carreen McNeil went to church. Our dinner that day served as both breakfast and dinner. The lights of Froid sure looked good to us when we rolled in at 8:00 that night.

THE PRICELESS INGREDIENT

In the City of Bagdad lived Haakem, the Wise One, and many people went to him for council, which he gave freely, asking nothing in return.

There came to him a Young Man, who had spent much, but got little, and said, "Tell me Wise One, what shall I do to receive the most for that which I spend." Haakem said, "A thing that is bought and sold has no value, unless it contains that which cannot be bought or sold. Look for the Priceless Ingredient."

"But what is this Priceless Ingredient?" asked the Young Man. Spoke then the Wise One, "My Son, the Priceless Ingredient of every Product in the Market Place is the Honor and Integrity of him who makes it. Consider his name before you buy."
